

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 26, 1996

SUBJECT: HB 2518 - SB 2882

This bill, if enacted, will amend the statute on forfeiture of property used in a crime to allow forty-five (45) days to file a petition for an administrative hearing rather than the current thirty (30) days.

The fiscal impact of this bill is estimated to increase state expenditures by $17,000 one-time for the printing of new forms for notice of seizure to reflect the new time period.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director
